GO TO DEMOCRATIC HEADQUARTERS TO-MORROW NIGHT ! Ga

A Perfect Scream of Agitation-A Shriek Upon the issue of the coming canvars hangs the fate of the Union. Imminent dangers, foreshadowed by the prophetic voices of our carriest statesmen, thicken around as and darkly threaten the welfare of our country. The dense black cloud of Abolitionsm, which, a little while ago. was dimly seen not bigger than a man's hand in the Northern horizon, has despened and black-need and overspread the whole North, until its scathing

Thus have the factions, in time of profound tion. The Union is just now suddenly in danger again, and the Know-Nothings are invoked to shricking of Know-Nothings and nigger worwhat is the agitation for? The plain truth is, might suffer from eircumstantial evidence. the shriek here uttered is an echo to the Black Republican shrick. They are the party dissatisfied with what has been done, and desire a change. The South has spoken in overwhelmdoes. They have as much interest in slavery as he has, and are quite as jealous of her rights. Their statesmen have discussed and examined this whole question, and have given the verdict of approval of what has been done. The country has nobly sustained them. What is the editor ranting and agitating for, when the South asks no agitation, and has nothing to agitate for? Does he want to dissolve this Union by unsettling what has been done? The editor's own antecedents may throw some light on this chricking. We have frequently published them, and they are as dark as the darkest republicanism. And read this:

Where is the reign of foreignism? This is bedience." about as true as the foreigners raging like savage beasts, that we have heard of in this city. It is a howl of horror to excite fools and knaves who are too sottishly ignerant to see through the cheat. But what is more, it is the real nigger-worshiper's shriek. They shriek at foreigners, the Pope, and slavery. They want to diswith the foreign vote because they can't | President has turned poet. Read: get it. They are constantly throwing their sneers particularly at the Irish as the allies of the slave power. The editor of the Journal pretends to skrick for the South, that wants none of his shricks; but, after all, it is a shrick at the voters Abolitionists can't get, and whom they wish to proscribe because they are on the wrong side. In order to understand what the editor is after, read the following:

Too Slow and too Fast.—After the lapse of severs weeks, the Sag-Ni ht organs pretend to have found of that there was a lieuo ratic trumph in the late loc election in lows. They amonine it in great staring capitals, and shout over it most vociterously. They have wated so long, they had better wait a hirle longe. They are not yet quite out of the weeks, and it isn to all to yet. The lowed lay Republican, of the 2rd in says. "There is now no probability that the actual reason." nearly all that is not exhibited.

Read that, and tell us where the sympathies of the editor are. Perhaps the brethren may suppose that the Know-Nothin party in Iowa is interested in the contest; that the editor is so full of his taunts end jeers, and so anxious that the Democracy may prove to be mistaken in their anticipations of the result; on the contrary, the party for whom the editor hopes for better than a defeat, is the Black Republican party, the real nigger-worshipers-Abolitionists. He quotes real negro-worshiping authority, and would evidently be gratified to hear that his brethren of the Abolition stripe had succeeded in Iowa. He is looking to the time he spoke of the other day, when the cause of dissension between the opposition shall be removed, and anticipates the day when the three horrors, slavery, the Pope, and foreigners, shall be blended in one harmonious whole against the Demohe deprecates may spread over the North. He is disappointed in the news from Iowa that the mens of this art, which are sold at our country mens of this art, which are sold at our country there. young and promising State. How can Ken-tional interest of greatly resembling any terrestuckians look at such a spectacle without dis- trial objects with which we are acquainted. The the fugitive slave law, and to denounce the Supreme Court and its doctrines; and who has contested the ground with them, inch by inch? The Democrats; nobody else. They alone in the North, they have this same body likeness!" to fight; and here is an editor in Kentucky anxious that the Democracy may be beaten in Iowa, and that this nullifying, negro-worshiping lows: party may be successful.

What does the editor mean, then, by agitating the slavery question, unless he wishes to unsettle the whole question, and give his freedom-shricking brethren a chance again, that he and they may unite and get spoils? All men who have an ounce of statesmanship about them, know there are but two programmes for settling the slavery question; one is that adopted and sustained by the Democratic party, North and South; the other is the Abolition.

What does the editor mean, then, by agitation of residing in the intention of residing in the same, every such negro or mulato shall be deemed guilty of a high misdemeanor, and for the first of first of the sum of fifty dollars, to be recovered before any Justice of the Peace in the county where said negro or mulatto may be found.

North and South; the other is the Abolition plan. Unsettle the one we have, and Abolition-ism is the alternative. His brothers surrounded the log; but he, the most daring of them all, ventured his devoted head in contact with he sharp claws of the cat. The very sides of the log trembled with the contest, and the snow slipped in affright from its decayed bark at the unwonted struggle; but not so with this stout-hearted hunter, for in a short time he come off cictor, bearing aloft his prize. He never one turned his back upon the enemy; but he says i was rather a matter of necessity, as he was i such close quarters there was no room for ear movement. He has a thorough knowl edge of every room in the cave, and once guided a party out when all the lights had irned down. 'The next one which I shall notice is a certain old "Dimikrat," a native of the old North State, noted for his sterling worth, strong Demeratic faith, and keeping a distillery these days of temperance reform. And if he does not make the genuine stuff, void of all strychnine, fishberries, and the like, there is no truth in chemicals. He gave me a long dissertation on the troubles of mule-raising, which I give for the edification of those who are ined to enter upon that field: "By zucks, sir, you may think it a fine business, but I tell you, sir, they ar the devilishes four-footed beasts that lives. Why, they'll g whar they please, and when they please, an woe be unto any unwary colts, cows, or calves, that stand in the way. And I tell you, sir, it's next to impossible (emphasizing the last sylla-ble) to wean the critters. He was once a dry goods merchant on an extensive scale, knew the value of every "artikle" well, but being too honest to sell things at cost when he was doubling his money on it, made a final bust up, and now earns his living by the sweat of his brow.

Our next character is one of more renown;

for who has not heard of —? or rather who has he not heard of? He is in personal apwomen should let their judgment be seen by the frugality and simplicity of their apparel."

Our modern young ladies are "frugal" enough in some articles of dress, heaven knows; and as to letting "their judgment be seen," that is master; and his suits, of clothes I mean, are a umerous as Beau's, and as many colored as Joseph's. He is as quick and ready at repartee as an Irishman; is as charitable as Amadis De Paul, and as lavish as a millionaire, even when he has to borrow the ready rhino; chews tobac-co to such an extent that he was once taken up and tried for stopping up the highway with his quids, and fined an oyster supper by the b'hoys, with whom he is a great favorite; remembers the most minute events with perfect distinctness; he is the referee in all old land claims; never forgets a face that he has once seen; though tropical suns may have browned and northern ones have frozen, his quick eye will detect the once familiar face. I had not seen him for some twenty years, when I visited my old familiar haunts, as I thought unknowing and unknown; but as I was passing through the C.ESAR'S OPINION OF HIS LIKENESS IN WORSTED WORK.—In a review of "The Apocatastasis," a work against spiritualism, published in

THE FILL VOTE OF LOUISVILLE MUST BE POLLED!-LAW AND ORDER MUST PREVAIL! - ATTEND AT DEMO-CRATIC HEADQUARTERS TO-MOREOW EVENING!

17 Au enterprising planter entered the city the officers of British engineers. yesterday with a dilapidated looking wagon loaded down to the hows with loose tobacco The vehicle was labeled "Fillmore and donnelson," indicative of the planter's political antecedents. An inquisitive citizen asked the wagoner why he didn't have his tobacco "prized' before he brought it to market. The planter replied that he had lost so much mouey on the last Presidential election that he couldn't defray the expense. If he read the Journal during the last campaign, and followed its advice, he is lucky to possess even the tobacco.

Major Phinucy, editor of the Barnstable (Mass.) Patriot, with his wife, have been sufferers from sickness brought on at the National Hotel during the inauguration week. They are not even now fully recovered. Mr. Phinney, in the course of au article in his paper, declares that "this was one of the most malicious attempts at wholesale poisoning which has ever been recorded in history. Who instigated the foul plot we may never know, but the design uu doubtedly was to poison Mr. Buchanan, no matter whoever else might be sacrificed."

NEW MEDICAL SOCIETY .- We learn that it is contemplated by the physicians in the eastern district of this city to organize a medical society. with the view to mutual improvement. Some of the medical practitioners of the upper por tion of our city occupy au enviable standing in the profession, enjoying not only a local popularity, but through the contributions which the have made to medical literature, possessing national fame, and we doubt not such an enter prise properly consummated, would prove profitable and pleasant to our medical friends in that CHANCE FOR PROFITABLE INVEST-MENT!!

COAL MINE FOR SALE OR TO LEASE.

THE UNDERSIGNED WOULD INform those who may do are to invest in the Minuze business, that they have for side or to lease a variable to al Mine, recently opened, and now in condition to turn out daily least business, which yield may be increased to any destrable amount by driving the entries. This cone is situated immediately on the Walusch and Eric causal, meat the crossing at White rives, forty miles from its southern terminus, at Evansville, on the Orbic eight inties from the point where the time and Mississippi radiroad crosses the canal, afteen unless from Vincennes, and three from Washington, havis county. At Evans ville, and other places along the line of the canal, this coal is already in very high reputer-being considered, by those whis have examined and tested it, decidedly superfor to any coal yet discovered in the West, and always commanding, in the same markets with them, a higher price than other Western coads. It is a handsome uritele, rich in luturations matter, yields largely of gas, and nakes excellent coke for foundery purposes, as has been fully shown by experiment within the last (welve months. Such is the demand for in by the founderies and other meanific turing crabbishments, to say nothing of the demand for faunty consumption, that the proprietors, with all their available mining capital. FOR SALE OR TO LEASE. for sale of Reaf Estate,
